Certificant Disciplinary Actions: Revocations, Suspensions, and Probations
 Last Effective Date: 7/1/2024: Sorted By Date Of Disciplinary Action

Revocation: A Certificant's certification has been revoked, permanently, and that person is no longer certified. The former Certificant MAY NOT: 1) advertise using their credential or any NCBTMB logo; 2) use their certificate in any other way to promote their practice; or 3) in any way hold themselves out to be certified by NCBTMB.

Suspension: A Certificant's certification has been suspended for a definite period of time and may be subject to meeting certain requirements before the suspension is lifted.

Emergency Suspension: A Certificant's certification has been suspended due to the emergency suspension or restriction of their state license, certification or registration by a federal, state or local government or agency authority. Certificant's certification will remain on Emergency Suspension until NCBTMB reviews all information available and a final determination is made.

Indefinite Suspension: A Certificant's certification has been suspended for an indefinite period of time due to their failure to reply to a complaint. Certificant is required to properly respond and comply with the NCBTMB peer review process prior to the Committee making a final determination. NCBTMB reserves the right to take additional action against the Certificant if additional information related to the complaint becomes available.

During any of the suspension periods listed above, the Certificant MAY NOT: 1) advertise using their credential or any NCBTMB logo; 2) use their certificate in any other way to promote their practice; or 3) in any way hold themselves out to be certified by NCBTMB.

Probation: A Certificant has been placed on probation for a definite period of time and may be subject to meeting certain requirements before the probation is lifted. During the probationary period, the Certificant MAY continue to: 1) advertise using their credential or any NCBTMB logo; 2) use their certificate in any other way to promote their practice; or 3) hold themselves out to be certified by NCBTMB.
